

Main data table containing a grid of numerical values representing depth measurements across a site.

