

Main data grid containing numerical values for elevation and depth across a grid of points.

